

Poetry.

PRINCESS AND PAGE.

BY LUCY H. BOWEN.

Spring in France is sunny and fair,
Spring's sweet odor comes from the air.

Princess Margaret stands there,
Jeweled diadems and robes of blue.

She glances down and smiles low,
"Who is the page that waits below?"

"A handsome youth with golden hair,
With broad white brow and shining hair."

"The page looks up—his eager gaze Glances on the fairest face in France."

Princess Margaret smiles sweetly,
Fair page—fair Prince Margaret.

The summer's scented breezes glide
Into the Louvre's cloistered walk.

Summer sunshine in golden gleams
Shimmers around Queen Catherine's hair.

"What handsome page," she whispers low,
"Is he that waits below?"

"The velvet cap that crowns his curls
Is clasped with a daisy wreath of pearls."

"Last night he sang an old French song,
Of a knight, of a dame, of a Marguerite."

"He sang, 'Adieu, adieu, to the night,
To the moon and stars, to the daisy and the light.'"

"He sang and he sang so sweetly,
His handsome page—his handsome page."

The autumn winds that swirl and swirl
Above the dark and silent hall.

A pallid moon with spectral light
Changes to ghastly day the night.

Over the river's bosom spread,
Where a castle of Gothic style

Out of the depths there rises now
A pale dead face with closed eyes.

And there, 'mid the gloom and the night,
The dead face of a woman's face.

Irish Church Hill—Exciting Scenes in the House of Lords.

In the House of Lords, on Friday night,

Lord Hatherly warmly supported the Irish Church bill. He said that whatever was the policy to be pursued, he regarded the long delay as a great injustice, and asserted that it was the right of the state to interfere and regulate property for relating charitable purposes when opposed to the public good, and when it could be better and more usefully appropriated.

He said that of the bill, which he introduced the Church to be of that of the Church. He drew a fearful picture of the man in which the policy had been carried out, but he had it entirely failed, although seconded by the bishops and the clergy. The attempt to force a hostile

Church on people was the root of all evil

Irishland excommunicated the clergy of the day from complexity in these acts, but he believed that all would be done in a desire to establish a new policy in the religion of Ireland.

Instead of aiming to give the Church a right to elect its own members, he was aiming to elect its members by a vote of the people. He strongly defended the justice, honesty and sound policy of the bill, and he hoped that the House would support it. He said that he was glad to see that the House was so united in its support of the bill, and he believed that it would be passed.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of all diseases of the Genital Organs, without the use of Medicine, or Surgery, or any other
Physical Inconvenience, Impediments to Marriage, &c., &c. Consumption, Epilepsy, and other diseases, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 5 cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure so simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
Send, under name, in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Mar-

Unpaid Personal Property Tax
The Board of County Commissioners have collected all unpaid personal property tax for all past years. The law authorizes the collector to collect said taxes by distress and sale of property. And allows the same as are allowed to constables for similar services.

The duty is an unpleasant one, but good faith to the county requires its performance.
And delinquents who do not make payment on or before the 10th day of July A. D. 1896 must be dealt with according to law.

Corruption in the Republican Party.

We have often within the last few years, charged the republican party with corruption, that the leaders thereof were stealing and squandering the people's money. Which charges have been pronounced as Democratic falsehoods. It is to prove our assertions to be true, we copy the following remarks upon your Auditor, who has held his present position ever since the Republican party in this State, is no better now, than he was when elected, and probably no worse. —

The present Auditor may have the inside track, but he is not a "stealer." He has a great thirst for "tracks," he "hunts" after them; in fact as a "stealer" he is a success. But the only "stealer" he has in this State, that we know of, upon which he can lay a very large "disturbance," is a number of very fine "stealers" school land, which he comes into bankruptcy and claims to have sold to himself and Messrs. Baldwin & Killeen.

We learn he is well supplied with "stealers" in nearly every county in the State, and that he ought to be "stealed" a little on some of them, "he" he "steals" in the final "steal."

Referring to the above the Stillwater publication:

This is not the only charge against the present Auditor. He and agent are nearly charged, by him, throughout the St. Croix with wilful deception in regard to the same. On the plain lands above here. We have been told that the State Auditor's company have swindled the State of thousands of dollars in the way of mortgage sales. This statement is made such a number of times from such sources, that we are constrained to believe it true. We shall investigate the matter, and if we find them to be true, we shall deem it our duty as the guardian of the public interest to circulate his election, even should he receive the nomination from the Republican party.

Communication.

ED. HERALD:

The worth of a teacher is estimated his capacity to govern and instruct. Teachers may be divided into three classes, good, ordinary, and very poor. The good teachers are those who have established themselves in the estimation of their friends of education by a course of doing and strict attention to all the duties within their reach to elevate the education and character of the schools, and then and then to be thorough and systematic in every department of their labor. You will at once cover that they have a time for extending and that everything is performed at its proper and appointed time. They have a place for everything and are everything to be kept in its place. They do but one thing at a time. I never allow themselves to be interrupted, or suffer their attention to be divided from the subject under consideration, until it is satisfactorily disposed of, or until they are to shine in their profession to benefit their juvenile pupils and to satisfy their employers. The business of teaching is among the most exalted professions. Their intellectual qualifications are pre eminent and their capacity to govern such as to elicit the commendation of those who are capable of appreciating a worth and merit. The good, or ordinary class of teachers is larger than the other. They enter upon the business of teaching with high expectations and sterling prospects. For a few days they are ambitious infusing energy of hope into the feelings of their pupils drawing into requisition every power within their command for the attainment of their object; but soon they seem become careless and indifferent, relax their exertions to elevate the standard of education begin to grow peevish and selfish and often through their inability control their temper, they make themselves appear ridiculous. They lose all self command and a fit of nervous indolence gradually envelops itself in the school. The fight is the scholars alike halt with satisfaction the scholars to commit the scholastic formulas of books, but seldom pause to investigate the whys and wherefores, to inculcate in the minds of the pupil an anxiety to know the reason, principle and application of everything submitted for his consideration.

In our next communication we will describe the poor class of teachers which comprises about four fifths of those who are engaged in teaching.

WM. BENSON.

Massachusetts Prohibitory Law.

The Boston Herald, representing those opposed to the Prohibitory law, gives the following account of its first enforcement in its own city:

Our people are greatly excited. The State Constable in the work of executing the law that is to eat down civil liberty by the acre, has just got his scythe in. Thus far he has only mowed a few rank weeds. The tall, ripe, and heavy grass is yet to be cut, and this is not to be done till his mowing machine is in perfect order, but he will be ready soon to go over the whole ground. People are mowing and squandering about as if they were worms, to be trod upon, and not men, wearing upon their foreheads the genial smile of freedom. The law, with its machinery of execution, seems to be making a wall of fire round about them, ready to eat up their property and to consume their liberties. Men speak of the good old common wealth as being no more than a large jail, or house of bondage, where the people are all bound hand and foot, with chains of iron and others with chains of gold—but all are slaves. A return to the old key system has already begun. Several large establishments that are "closed" in response to the order of the high constable are easily opened by those who have the machinery of 1867. It is fair to presume that those who thirst badly and often will easily be provided with a combination lever. As regards seizures, it will be noticed that none here have been made after dark, and it is very probable that none will be. It is not deemed prudent to do so. Too many people are abroad, and such work might create a serious disturbance. The liquors that are seized are taken direct to the building in Brookfield street, where Major Jones occupies his headquarters, and stored in the cellar, where they remain till the Court orders them to be destroyed.

The "bottle" business has become quite brisk, and in all probability there will be an unusual amount of thirst quenched around the family altar. This is one way that the system of prohibition will teach the family circle.

A Distinguished Visitor.

Appleton's Journal, which is generally well informed about European affairs, gives us a piece of intelligence that is quite sensational. It is known that Prince Arthur, Queen Victoria's second son, will visit the United States during the present season; but the fact has not been made current that a more illustrious visitor will land on our shores next summer, in the person of Eugenia Montijo, grand-daughter of Mr. Kilpatrick, at one time American consul at Malaga, and a friend of Washington Irving, who, in one of his letters says: "Louis Napoleon and Eugenia Montijo, the Emperor and Empress of France—one of whom I entertained at my cottage on the Hudson; the other, when a child, I had on my knee, at Grandpa's! It seems to me the climax of the strange dreams of which Paris has been the theatre during my life time." The last I saw of Eugenia Montijo, she was one of the reigning belles of Madrid. Eugenia, so the Journal tells us, will visit the United States as Empress of France, but will travel incognito under an assumed name, which, however, will not prevent from receiving a most cordial and enthusiastic reception wherever she may show her still beautiful face. She will be the first of the crowned heads of Europe who has landed on American soil.

The Virginia Election.

Washington Dispatch to the Chicago Times.

Secretary Boutwell is very much dissatisfied with the result of the Virginia election, and declares that persons wanting positions in the treasury department must be bolstered up with stronger influence than that of bolsters of the Republican party. Several republican members of Congress here declare that no good objections can be urged in favor of the admission of Virginia. The President seems to be satisfied that the terms of the reconstruction act have been fully complied within that State.

Washington Dispatch to Chicago Republican.

Per contra the bona fide radicals of the State assert that the administration was deceived into a partial support of the Walker movement, and that the so-called conservatives are now laughing at their sleeves at the success which would never have crowned their efforts if the President had not listened to the appeals of his political enemies.

The Prize Ring.

St. Louis, July 10.—The match between Allen and McCool has been arranged, articles of agreement drawn up and $2000 aside deposited. The fight is to take place November 10th, within fifty miles of Cincinnati. Geo. Wilkes is spoken of as the final stakeholder.

NOTICE.

Those knowing themselves indebted to this office, are requested to settle up at once. There are accounts on our book of two years standing, to such this is our last appeal. We hope we shall not be called upon to insert this often or to apply other remedies.

STRAWBERRIES.—Mr. F. G. Gould of Excelsior, Hennepin County is the proprietor of an excellent Nursery. He was in town last week taking orders for strawberry plants and at the same time exhibiting the Wilson and Golden Queen varieties. They were large and luscious and attracted great attention. Orders left with Mr. Thies will be promptly attended to. The rate as follows. Wilson $1. per 100, Golden Queen 35 cents per doz.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.—We dropped into the Moravian Sunday School a short time since, and was highly pleased with the large number of scholars and teachers present. It was remarkable with what promptitude the children would answer religious questions propounded by the Superintendent. Also the proficiency of the children in singing. Rev. Mr. Mix, the Superintendent, has the faculty in a remarkable degree, of imparting useful instruction to the children under his charge, in a felicitous and beautiful manner. His extemporaneous and impromptu remarks are not only instructive and edifying to the children of the School but also to "children of a larger growth."

BARLEY.—We have in our office a few stalks of barley from the field of Jacob Von Molkens of this town, which measures 5 feet high, and the heads contain from 50 to 70 kernels of grain. It has five acres all standing about the same height. We never saw a better looking field.

RAPIDLY IMPROVING.—We are happy to announce that ex-sheriff Killeworth is rapidly recovering from his late severe attack of sickness, and his leg all mending. We hope to see him around soon, as in times gone by.

PURCHASED.—Mr. John Kerker has purchased the residence of Mr. J. Herding and will take possession the latter part of August. Mr. Herding will move on his farm 2 miles from town.

HAY.—Is very plenty this season. It is a beautiful sight to see the mowers at work in the tall grass on our bottom lands on either side of the river. A large amount of hay will be made this season.

BRICK.—The Messrs. Howes' are kept busy supplying the demand for the celebrated Chaska brick. He has some 35 or 40 men at work and is yet hardly able to meet the demand. He ships a large load to St. Paul every week.

WHEAT.—The wheat trade has been lively for the past two weeks, prices ranging from $1.00 to 1.08 per bushel. Very large quantities have been received.

COMMENCED.—Mr. Sheetz has commenced work on the foundation of his new building. It will be 20 x 32 two stories and built of wood. Mr. Leonard Grates will lay the foundation.

RUMORED.—It is rumored about that the Steam Mill is about to pass into the hands of a new company. It is said that the new company is wealthy and will run the mill the year round.

WHEAT SHIPMENT.—Messrs. Linenfelser and Faber, shipped below by barge last Monday 3,000 bushels of wheat. Henry Young also shipped 800. Henry Ames was the purchaser.

Harper's Weekly and Bazar are both excellent weeklies; probably the latter, as a fashion magazine, is unsurpassed by any similar publication in the country. They spare no pains to make them all interesting, and we judge from the patronage they receive, they are eminently successful.

MOWER TRIAL.

Pursuant to notice previously given by the County Agricultural Society, the contestants in the mower trial met in the field of Mr. John Koch on Wednesday last.

F. E. Du Toit was chosen Secretary pro tem. It was voted that the committee of Judges consist of five. The following Judges were then chosen unanimously. John Koch, Peter Lano, Freeman James, Andrew Anderson and Geo. Raitz. It was voted to change teams from one Machine to another and have every advantage each machine possessed brought out.

The following machines were then entered for trial:

No. 1. The Eagle Mower, H. Young.
No. 2. The Dodge "H. R. Denny."
No. 3. The Meadow King, P. Henk.
No. 4. The McCormick Holmes, & Co.
No. 5. The Wood's, Faber and Co.
No. 6. The Buckeye, H. Sauerbrey.

After a thorough trial of each Machine separately and conjointly the committee retired for deliberation and after a long session discussing the merits and advantages of the different machines, all of which were first class, the Judges finally awarded the Dodge Mower, represented by H. R. Denny of Carver the first premium for general excellence.

F. E. DU TOIT, Secretary.

The field in which the above trial took place, was hardly in our opinion rough enough to fully test the machines as they should have been. We can hardly discriminate where they all do such good work, and each machine had and has its friends and they firmly believe such and such a one "the machine." The lightest draught machine was the "Meadow King" and in this field alone McCormick and Swedish, tried, well known and maintained their reputation as such. The Eagle is a new machine in this County and in this trial established a good reputation. The "Dodge" the prize machine done admirable work every time and will without doubt become popular.

To Mr. Koch and lady we return the sincere and hearty thanks of all those present, for the good hearty dinner enjoyed. It was certainly no better dinner for us to set down to a better dinner for the boy says a "coons age." The trial passed off pleasantly, with the best of feeling and all returned home fully satisfied with the day's doings.

Resignation of Chief Justice Wilson.

The Hon. Thomas Wilson, chief justice, resigned that office on Wednesday, to take effect on the 13th inst. The Winona Republican intimates that the step was taken from a desire to participate in the political canvass this fall, with a possible view to the United States Senate in place of Mr. Norton. Gov. Marshall has appointed James Gillilan, of St. Paul, to fill the vacancy. A good appointment.

The State Teachers' Association will hold its annual session in Rochester August 25th, 26th and 27th. Addresses will be given by M. H. Dunnell, President of the Association, Prof. Washburn of the State University, Rev. Charles Seaborn, of the Northfield College, and Rev. A. J. Nelson of Austin.

The St. Paul Railroad Bridge.

The Minneapolis Tribune, of Saturday, says:

The work of framing the timbers for the Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad bridge above St. Paul is progressing very rapidly at the yard of the company in this city. The most of the spans have been completed, and the workmen are now engaged in framing the heavy oak turn table for the draw, and the large draw for the centre of the river. The draw is a heavy piece of work. It is 270 feet long and when put up will leave a space of 116 feet between the piers for steamboats to pass through. The timbers are framed and put together at the yard, and then taken apart, and transported down by rail to the transfer below Mendota where they are loaded on barges and floated to the bridge. The work of stretching the timbers for the bridge will commence next Monday.

Chinese Laborers for the Southern States.

From the San Francisco Chronicle, June 27.

A contract has been made in this city for the supply of 20,000 Chinese laborers, to be employed as plantation hands in the State of Tennessee. The very faithful and intelligent manner the Chinese laborers performed their work in constructing the Central Pacific railroad has attracted attention to this untried class of rough laborers. It is understood that the passage of these laborers will be paid by their employers, and they will be paid $20 per month. Another force of 25,000 is being contracted for to proceed to the State of Mississippi. Pretty soon, if this demand goes on, California will be cleared of all the Chinese laborers.

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

Scandal among Residents of the Avenue.

The following bit of romantic scandal, brought to light in one of our lower courts yesterday, may serve as a useful lesson to some others.

On Walsh street, near the corner of Fourteenth street, stands a palatial residence, with all its surroundings and appointments indicative of wealth and luxury. The occupants comprise, beside the parents, a son and a handsome daughter aged 18. The daughter, who is one of the dramatis personae of this article, is an intelligent young lady of remarkable beauty, and favorite of a large number of friends in the higher circle of society.

The father had acquired wealth and a substantial reputation in a leading business house in this city, and the family was looked upon as among the highest.

Among their acquaintances was a young man moving in the same society, and connected in business with a leading wholesale house on Lake street. The young man, whom we will call George, is a dashing young gallant—the beau ideal of many a maiden—and resided with his parents on Michigan avenue, near the corner of the family was not lacking in worldly goods, and the so-called George was a frequent and a favored guest at the family mansion, and for the last two years a constant attendant on the lovely daughter.

Rumor, however, the young couple, but it transpired that their fond passion had not yet ripened into definite form.

Such was the situation of the inmates of the Walsh and Michigan avenue mansion on Sunday evening last, when George and Leah started for a horseback ride toward the southern suburbs, and returned, returning, and when near Hyde Park, the young lady alighted to adjust her riding habit, when, it is stated, the young gallant, who had been waiting for her, stepped from his horse and, with a single bound, he was upon her, and with a single blow, he had knocked her down.

The great indignation of the father and mother, who on hearing her story, was almost uncontrollable, and a meeting at that time would have been fatal to one of both parties. Before, however, a meeting, however, a warrant was procured for the arrest of George, who was fast approaching his business for an evening tour, and the warrant was placed in the hands of Constable Hartman, who proceeded, in company with Constable Stewart, on Monday evening to the Michigan avenue residence to arrest the modern Lecher.

While the officers were searching the house, the young man, who was standing back window, and taking a carriage standing near at hand, drove to the Michigan Central depot, and taking a carriage standing near at hand, drove to the Michigan Central depot, and taking a carriage standing near at hand, drove to the Michigan Central depot.

On Tuesday, the young man was brought before Justice Winslow, and gave bail in the sum of $2,000 for his further appearance on Wednesday. On Wednesday, the young man was brought before Justice Winslow, and gave bail in the sum of $2,000 for his further appearance on Wednesday.

WALTER A. WOOD'S, SELF RAKING REAPERS & PRIZE MOWERS

1867. 1867.

THESE WELL KNOWN MACHINES ARE OFFERED TO THE FARMER for 1867, with Material Improvement. The Out of Wood's Self Raker is increased 4 inches without increasing its weight at all. It has a Spring Seat on it—and Steel and Malleable Iron takes the place of cast iron, in many important parts. When it is considered that this Machine has heretofore given unsolicited satisfaction, we think farmers will see that it is the machine to buy. They are not paying too much for an experiment, as is too often the case. Mr. Wood manufactured 15,000 in 1866 and will turn out 25,000 in 1867. This Agency sold 400 in 1866 of these machines, and sold 7,000 in 1867, with every prospect of an increase in 1868.

These Machines were triumphantly at the Paris Universal exhibition, 1867. Two Grand Gold Medals and the Honorary of the "Cross of the Legion of Honor" conferred by His Majesty, Emperor Napoleon, upon the inventor, WALTER A. WOOD.

First Gold Medal—At Great National Field Trial held at Auburn, N. Y., in 1865. First Prize at Grand National Field Trial held at Rochester, Minn., August 20th, 21st, 22nd and 23rd, 1867. Over 100,000 machines are now in use in Europe and America. The demand in 1868 greatly exceeds the supply. Increased demand with increased facilities for manufacturing, and the fact that the price of the machine is reduced, makes it a most desirable investment.

Wood's Self-Raking Reaper, easily managed, of light draft, is the "Victory of Every Contest," and forms with the new Mowing Attachment, the most perfect combined machine in use.

THESE WELL KNOWN MACHINES ARE OFFERED TO THE FARMER for 1867, with Material Improvement. The Out of Wood's Self Raker is increased 4 inches without increasing its weight at all. It has a Spring Seat on it—and Steel and Malleable Iron takes the place of cast iron, in many important parts. When it is considered that this Machine has heretofore given unsolicited satisfaction, we think farmers will see that it is the machine to buy. They are not paying too much for an experiment, as is too often the case. Mr. Wood manufactured 15,000 in 1866 and will turn out 25,000 in 1867. This Agency sold 400 in 1866 of these machines, and sold 7,000 in 1867, with every prospect of an increase in 1868.

These Machines were triumphantly at the Paris Universal exhibition, 1867. Two Grand Gold Medals and the Honorary of the "Cross of the Legion of Honor" conferred by His Majesty, Emperor Napoleon, upon the inventor, WALTER A. WOOD.

First Gold Medal—At Great National Field Trial held at Auburn, N. Y., in 1865. First Prize at Grand National Field Trial held at Rochester, Minn., August 20th, 21st, 22nd and 23rd, 1867. Over 100,000 machines are now in use in Europe and America. The demand in 1868 greatly exceeds the supply. Increased demand with increased facilities for manufacturing, and the fact that the price of the machine is reduced, makes it a most desirable investment.

Minnesota Coal—Its Existence a Fact.

W. H. Grant, Esq., has exhibited to the people of Minnesota the existence of coal in the vicinity of Redwood Falls, Hennepin county. The samples left with him were taken from the mine 150 feet from the surface, and 45 feet under the surface. The vein from which it was taken is 8 inches in thickness, and the quality of the coal is constantly improving as they progress with the work of mining. The samples before us bear a strong resemblance to the coal of the West, and if found in the quantity represented, we are convinced that coal in Minnesota may be regarded as a fact, and ere long will be found in the market at a price which will completely revolutionize the question of fuel. Mr. Grant informs us further that the company is now working the mine day and night, and progressing at the rate of about twelve feet every twenty-four hours. The settlers around Redwood Falls are buying the coal and carrying it 10 and 15 miles on the prairie, and using it for fuel. Mr. Grant and his associates are entitled to commendation for their enterprise and untiring efforts in developing this new source of wealth to our State. They have labored under many discouragements, and if successful at last in demonstrating the existence of coal in paying quantities, as we have no doubt they have, they are fairly entitled to the rich pecuniary reward which must result from this important discovery. Samples of the coal they are mining can be seen at the room of the Chamber of Commerce, where all who are skeptical as to the existence of coal in this State, can see and examine it for themselves.

CHASKA, FRIDAY, JULY 23, 1869.

Don't Fail worth a Cent!

"Brick" Pomeroy has placed the business management of his papers in the hands of C. P. Sykes an experienced publisher, and now devotes his entire time to the duties of the station, where, relieved of business cares, he is making his giant weekly, Pomeroy's Democrat, the most readable paper ever printed. It is sharper than the La Crosse Democrat ever was—more than red-hot, and full to the brim of laughable humorous articles; Saturday Night chapters, and those peculiar editorials, none others can or dare write. Send for sample copies, or subscribe by sending for it to the editor or publisher, P. O. Box 5,217, New York City. He pays five hundred dollars cash, for the largest club sent in before the 10th of September! The reports of Pomeroy's failure are simply stories started by those who do not like his giant paper or his red-hot style of editing a paper opposed to bondholders and official corruption.

Accounts Against Towns and Counties.

The last legislature made an important change in the law relating to claims against towns and counties, and they are now required to be made out and verified according to the following provisions. SECTION 1. Before any account, claim or demand against any town or county of this State, for any property or services for which such town or county shall be liable, shall be audited or allowed by the board of officers authorized by law to audit and allow the same; the person in whose favor such account, claim or demand shall be, or his agent shall reduce the same to writing in Italian, and shall verify the same, to the effect that such account claim or demand is just and true, that the money therein charged was actually paid for the purposes therein stated, that the property therein charged was actually delivered or used for the purposes therein stated, and that the services therein charged were actually rendered and of the value therein charged, or in case such services were official for which fees are prescribed by law, then that the fees or amounts charged therefor are such as are allowed by law, and that no part of such account, claim or demand has been paid. Provide, That the provisions of this act shall not apply to any claim or demand for an annual salary as per diem of jurors or witnesses fixed by, or in pursuance of any statute. A severe penalty is provided for the failure by a board of commissioners or trustees to require the account to be made out in accordance with the law, and all parties interested should govern themselves accordingly.

Elections.

The President has fixed the day for the elections in Mississippi and Texas for the last Tuesday in November, to wit: Nov. 30. This day was determined upon so as to place the matter beyond all interference by the cotton crop or other industries requiring the attention of the laboring population, and yet have the elections transpire before the meeting of Congress. The mode of submitting the Constitution in Mississippi was also determined, to wit, the test oath and disfranchising clause to be submitted separately, as in Virginia, while the Twelfth article, which provided the manner and time of submitting the Constitution, having become inoperative because of the rejection of the instrument at the last election, is left out altogether. The Texas Constitution will be submitted as a whole, and that no part of it is to be submitted separately, as in Virginia, while the Twelfth article, which provided the manner and time of submitting the Constitution, having become inoperative because of the rejection of the instrument at the last election, is left out altogether.

Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana, had a splendid reception at Omaha on Wednesday last. He was welcomed by the Mayor, and in response, made a powerful speech upon the state of the country. Speeches were also made by Hon. Joseph E. McDonald and Hon. Wm. E. Niblack, of Indiana. Over five thousand people were present at the reception, and great enthusiasm prevailed.

The Powell expedition was all safe July 4th, at which time they were all well, and had passed the Grand Rapids on the Colorado river, below the mouth of Green river. This is the point where the catastrophe was reported to have occurred a month previous. Good!

Senator Sprague on Mr. Colfax.

In his Fourth of July speech before the Free Masons of Sciota, Senator Sprague said:

But I cannot close without pointing to the recent exhibition in the presence of the whole people of the Vice President of the United States travelling and speaking in the interest of the powers I condemn. He reminds me of the ass who stole the habits of the king of the forest; for when he asserts that the country is prosperous and contented, he shows the ears which prove his true character. He came among us more especially as the representative of the mighty West, a people not yet hibernated to the dictates of the moneyed aristocracy, or to customs and institutions founded upon it. But he joins counsel and co-operation with those powers which in themselves and in their representative capacity are so in hostility to the independence and growth of the West. Let him and those who have induced him to prepare to meet on the floor of the Senate, for the information of the people from whom he comes, his true character, and that of the alliance he has made.

Southern Elections.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—It is stated that at the lengthy session of the Cabinet yesterday, the question of elections in Mississippi and Texas was fully discussed, and it was finally agreed that an election should be held in Mississippi on the 4th of November next. No official news of the condition of affairs in Texas having been received lately, it was thought not to rush an election there until the people were thought to be fully prepared for it.

The steamship Henry Chauncy, from Aspinwall, has arrived.

The order of the President detaching Army officers as Indian agents, has turned out several civilians who have been lately appointed to those unprofitable and self-sacrificing positions. We see that a Captain Hassler has arrived in St. Paul, to assume the Superintendence of Indian affairs in Minnesota, which, the Pioneer says, turns "Friend" C. T. Brown out of his Chippewa agency. We suppose Friend Daniels is also ousted.

CHINA AND JAPAN.

A New Rebellion in China—Another Fight in Japan.

HONG KONG, June 24.—A London, July 17th proclamation denouncing foreign agents has been extensively posted in the towns and villages on the Yangtze river by agents of a secret society. A conspiracy has been discovered at Fong Chow, having for its object the opening of another "Peking war." It is rumored that over 50,000 men are connected with the movement. Yokohama, 10th June letters received say that the naval and military fought rebels at triakaddi. Result of battle not known.

Narrow Escape of Mexican Officials.

HAVANA, July 17.—Dates from the City of Mexico to the 11th states that while President Juarez and cabinet and about 40 others were enjoying a ride on Lake Texcoco, near Mexico, the boiler of the steamer exploded. All were miraculously saved. Romero was in the engine room and was thrown into the water, but saved himself by swimming.

Climate and Society of St. Paul.

The New York Times commenting upon a statement that Gen. Hancock had been "banished to St. Paul," says the following complimentary to our climate and society: "We are forced to conclude, that despite the late late prognostic lamentations over Gen. Hancock's untimely fate, he can only have been banished to St. Paul, with his fine physique and robust health, to support even the exile to St. Paul considering that the climate there is the most equable and delicious in the country, the society good all the year round, 'banishment' something like being sent off from Harrisburg to Saratoga."

The New York Sun learns that the important office of editor of the New York Times has been offered to the Hon. John Bigelow, and that he holds the office under consideration. The terms are said to consist of a salary of $10,000 a year and a large interest in the proprietorship of the paper on very favorable terms. As Mr. Bigelow had just completed his arrangement for a protracted residence in Europe, he naturally hesitates to change his plans.

A little girl named Annie Sherman was shot in the back by Charles Dingman a special watchman in Troy, early on Tuesday evening while at play with two of her children in what is known as Warren's Orchard. Dingman was arrested and followed to the Station-house by a large and excited crowd, who were with difficulty prevented from lynching him. He explained that he went out to shoot a dog which had been troubling him and did not see the children; but the girl stated that one of her mates was knocking apples off the tree, when Dingman appeared, shouting at them and fired.

Time Table of M. V. R. R.

The following indicates the time for the arrival of trains at Meridian Station:

UP TRAINS.....10:32 A. M. 5:30 P. M.
DOWN TRAINS..... 9:08 A. M. 2:05 P. M.

J. F. Lincoln, Supt.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. S. Dieffenbacher, editor and publisher of the Pittsburgh Rail Road Guide, is in Carver on a visit to relatives and friends. We have had the pleasure of forming the acquaintance of Mr. D., and find him an agreeable and entertaining gentleman, we hope that his stay with us. We will be long enough to give him a good impression of our climate, soil and other natural advantages Minnesota possesses over the Eastern and Middle States, whereby he will be enabled to disabuse the mind of the editor of the Evening Mail about the wild woods of Minnesota.

Hon. M. H. Dunnell, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, was in town last Friday. His stay was short on account of business.

Mr. Wm. Patterson of Waconia was in town during the week.

Col. Baxter, Sheriff Hecklin and Fred Du Toit visited the city during the week.

S. S. PIERCE.—The Chaska and Carver Sabbath Schools will have a picnic in Ebersburg grove on Friday, the 30th inst. Friends of the cause in both places are cordially invited. The Chaska school will meet in the Academy at 9 o'clock, A. M. A procession will be formed to march through town.

Conveyances will be provided for those too young to walk. A team will also pass around between 8 & 9 o'clock to gather the provisions. Friends will please label their baskets to prevent confusion. There will be too tables one for the children and one for the "Old Folks."

Speakers are expected from St. Paul, and other places.

Come friends, lay aside your work, and let us spend one day for the children and thereby further the cause of Christ.

Just as we go to print Mr. Mix rec'd. a letter from G. W. Prescott, State S. School Superintendent which informs us that he will be present at the picnic. Mr. Dunnell also expects to be here.

PLEASANT VISIT.—A large number of the friends of Mr. Tobias Ottiger, made him a visit last Sunday and were most hospitably entertained by himself and lady. Mrs. Ottiger spread a most bountiful table, which I assure you, was done justice too, by the guests. Speeches were made, reminiscences of old pioneer times recounted and with a stroll over the farm, the party returned home satisfied with their visit and reception.

BOQUET.—Mr. Fred Greiner has our thanks for a beautiful bouquet of flowers, selected from his garden, which is by the way, one of the most beautiful horticultural gardens in the valley. Mr. Greiner and Smith have gardens that are a credit to any community.

TAKE WARNING.—The deputy assessor for this district Mr. Wm. Glitschka of Carver has issued a letter of instruction and warning to those dealing in tobacco. If any are found selling smoking, fine cut or plug tobacco except from stamped packages, lay themselves liable to fine and imprisonment. A word to the wise is sufficient.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.—We see that workmen are at work on the foundation of the new Catholic Church. We are informed that it is the intention of those in charge of the work, to have the building completed so far that the basement can be occupied for religious services this fall. The location is a pleasant and commanding one, and when completed the building will show off to advantage.

CONTRACT LET.—The Board of Trustees of School District No. 5, Chaska, have let the contract for the building of an addition to the school house, 24 x 26, one-story, to Henry Kenning for $150. Mr. K., furnishing all material necessary for the erection and completion of the same. We do not endorse the mode of enlarging the school room. We think it would have been far better to have added another story to the present building and have converted our present system into a graded school. A few years hence will demonstrate the folly of the present expenditure of $450, for a wooden addition on a brick building.

Minnesota Iron Works.

We again call the attention of our Millers to the advertisement of the above works. It is time to repair preparatory to fall work, and in this connection recommend the Minnesota Iron Works of Minneapolis. Messrs. Lineau & Co. of Waretown have an engine in their Mill from these works, and it cannot be surpassed. Call on them by all means.

Crops in Carver County.

The crops as a general thing, have never looked so promising in our County as at present. A few days more of favorable weather will ensure such a crop of Wheat, Barley, Oats and Rye as never before in the history of Minnesota, gladdened the heart, or blest the toils of the farmer. The wheat is now headed out, and in the milk, a few days of pleasant weather, such as we are now enjoying, will bring it to maturity without any mishap. Barley is almost ready for harvest, and bids fair to surpass any similar crop raised in the State. Oats and Rye good and ready for harvest.—Corn in most localities in this part of the Valley is an exception to the run of crop. It is backward, and will probably not mature.

SWISS RE-UNION.—Remember the Swiss re-union at Waconia on July 25th. From present indications it bids fair to be a success. The programme will simply be, to form an organization, listen to an oration and an interchange of anecdotes about the oldest "Republic in existence." The ride will be a pleasant one and is alone inviting enough to induce attendance. Attend.

LUMBER.—Mr. Munk of Carver has one of the largest lumber yards in the Valley. He has on hand now 150,000 feet of lumber and 500,000 shingles. Mr. Munk probably sells as much lumber as any yard in the Valley, except Mackatoe & St. Peter.

Mr. Schrimpf & Co. of the same place also disposes annually of a large quantity.

SALOON.—In another column we publish the card of Mr. Buttendorf of Carver. Peter keeps a good orderly house and always has fresh tapped beer, and other "good articles" on hand. Give him a call.

FIRE AT CARVER.—The house of Frank Grim of Carver burned down last week. The building caught fire during the absence of Mr. Grim and family.—Insurance on building and furniture $700. Phoenix, Hartford, Conn.

CARVER ITEMS.—We expect our usual batch of "Items" next week. Our "regulars" failed to find time the past few weeks, but will hereafter be prompt.

DISAPPEARED.—The large rows of improved farm Machinery that were in front of our business houses have disappeared, from which we infer that hereafter most of the work on our fields will be done by machinery hereafter. It also speaks well for the prosperity of our farmers.

NOTICE.—The undersigned would respectfully say to the citizens of Chaska, and surrounding county that he is now located in Chaska, for the purpose of practicing his profession. Thankful for past favors, and hopes to receive an increase of patronage in the future.

S. A. THOMAS, M. D.
Chaska July 21st 1869.

PETER'S MUSIC MONTHLY.—We have just received the July number of this magazine of music. It contains 13 pieces, vocal and instrumental, which at the usual price for sheet music would be worth at least $3.25. The monthly comes every month for a year on payment of $3.00. What you would pay for the amount of sheet music this number contains, would more than pay for the monthly for a whole year. Send for it. Address J. L. Petters, 198, Broadway N. Y.

The Heart and Home, for this week is an especially fine number. The interesting story "The Romance of a Rich Young Girl," which is begun in this number is by the author of "Romance of a Poor Young Man," and the illustrations are excellent. This weekly is becoming immensely popular with all classes, and deservedly so.

The Minnesota Monthly for July has arrived. It is a work of much merit, and designed to instruct Agriculturalists in the Northwest. It is published by St. Paul, by D. A. Robertson, for two dollars per year. All farmers should take it who can.

"Dandruff Annihilator" was the exclamation of an enthusiastic old bachelor when experiencing the magic effect of one bottle of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative," the premium article.—G. A. Du Toit, Agent, Carver Minn.

MOWING TRIAL.

To the agents of all mowers. We respectfully invite you to a mowing trial at any time before the 30th of July 1869. The trial shall be conducted by a committee of three disinterested farmers. The Judges to confine themselves to the particular points to wit: the lightest draught, most durable, cheapest, best time, quality of work on rough and smooth ground, wet or dry. The machine that takes the prize sweeps the machines on the ground. (Come one! come all!!) We mean business and all we say.

The Judges to select the ground. If you wish to meet us give notice at any time before the 30th of July.

We accept the challenge of the reaper trial offered by H. R. Donny of Carver, Chaska July 21st 1869.

Wooden Legs Against Carls.

From the Argonaut (Ohio) Democrat, July 8.

When a crippled soldier begs his way to Washington, asking for something to do in the pay of the Government, no at- tention is paid him or his wants. He may have a wooden leg or none; he may be a good hand, keep accounts cor- rectly, but he is not wanted in Grant- ville. When a nice young lady hols around that vicinity, wringing her Gre- cian bead, shaking her curls, putting sweetly, and she is given a situation in the Treasury Department at once.

Here she has good pay and penquis- its, or extra compensation for what can- not be properly termed overwork.

The soldier fought and fell on the bat- tle field. The pretty girl did not fight nor fall on a battle field.

The soldier's recommend is what he lost in defense of our country; the pretty girl's recom- mend is what she has lost or is willing to lose, in some other way. An honest man loaded down with recommendations in Washington, would starve to death; while a handsome piece of dainty, gotten up in style, with good form, handsome face, pouting lips, double meaning eye; and a disposition to make herself gener- ally useful, can have a situation at once.

Cure for Small Pox.

The following cure for this dreaded malady is communicated to a German paper in New York by a correspondent in China. It is said to have been discovered by a surgeon in the British army, on duty in China. The mode of treat- ment is as follows:

When the preceding fever is at its height, and just before the eruption ap- pears, the chest is rubbed with croton oil and tartaric emetic ointment. This causes the whole of the eruption to ap- pear on that part of the body, to the relief of the rest. It also secures a full and complete eruption, and thus pre- vents the disease from attacking the in- ternal organs. This is said now to be the established mode of treatment in the English army in China, by general or- ders, and is regarded as a perfect cure.

Couldn't Endure Greatness.

The Russian journals bring us an ac- count of a singular suicide—that of Komissarow, who in 1866 saved the life of the Emperor Alexander by knock- ing up the arm of the assassin Karakozov just as he was about to direct a pistol against the person of the Czar.

The man who was fortunate enough to render this service to His Majesty was a working hatter, and was about 35 years of age. From this time his honors con- tinued to rain upon him. For his plean- name was substituted a noble one, that of Kostumski. He received an en- titled estate, with all its privileges, was made Colonel of a regiment of the Im- perial Guards, and a national subscrip- tion was opened for him, which produced nearly two millions of rubles.

This favorite of fortune, however, could not stand the intoxication of his good luck, and he sought to counterbal- ance its giddy effects by another species of inebriety. A hopeless sot, he became an intolerable burden to himself and others, and finally in one of his desperate fits of drunkenness hung himself.

We have received from the Commis- sioner of the General Land Office a copy of the official "notice of the removal of the land office from Winnebago City to Chaska, county of Jackson, as at early a day as practicable."

A further notice of the precise time of closing the office at Winnebago City, preparatory to its removal, and its open- ing for business at Chaska, will be given by the Register and Receiver of the Land District, by publication."

The notice is dated June 15 1869.

A young couple eloped from Owings- ville, Kentucky, lately, and when at a safe distance from home, were married. Soon after, an officer was sent in pursuit, and, arriving at the hotel where they were stopping, found them snug in bed. He explained his errand, when the young lady said, with a ringing laugh: "Tell me! too late—we have been married, and have been in bed half an hour. Scuggle up, Will, and don't get out of bed for him!"

—Gen. Joseph H. Cooper, of Tennessee, who organized the first company of Union troops in that State during the war, and who has been a radical repub- lican from the start, has written a letter in which he says he believed the franchise law was necessary when it was enacted, but that necessity has now passed away, and hence he is with Senator Brownlow for universal suffrage and the election of Governor Senter.

SWISS FESTIVAL.

The long talked of festival has taken place and was in every respect a success. The day was a very pleasant one, highly propitious to success, and so inviting in fact, that people came from a very long distance. The sturdy sons of the old "Helvetian Republic," true to the mem- ory of their "fatherland" were on hand in large numbers bright and early, buoy- ant with the love they cherished for the land that gave them birth—the oldest Republic in existence.

THE PROCESSION.

At 1 o'clock p. m., a procession was formed in front of the store of Sam Moy and with National emblems flying and music playing marched to the pic- nic grove near town, where at least 1,000 persons were assembled, every town of the County being represented. Water- town, Chaska, Young America and Carver having large delegations.

SPEECHES, MUSIC &c.

We were not present during the deliv- ery of speeches, but understand that Thos. Kerker delivered a very good na- tional oration. John Kerker, and Jean De ville followed. Mottos and designs ornamented the platform and were ap- propriate to the occasion.

The celebrated Shakopee brass band discoursed sweet music during the in- terval of speeches, which lent additional en- chantment to the occasion.—The beau- tiful grove resounded with the harmoni- ous strains of songs and musical in- struments as they blended together and were wafted upon the breezes.

VOTING.

Voting for "prizes" was quite spirited and elicited much amusement. Thos. Kerker was voted the "ugliest" "swit- zer" present. How he bears his honors we are not aware. The announcement of the result, was received with shouts. Mrs. Ernst Miller was voted to be the prettiest woman present, and received the prize a very pretty silk Parasol.— There were a number of competitors, but she distanced them all.

NEXT PLACE OF MEETING.

After a long discussion and several ballots, Young America was chosen as the next place of meeting, one year hence.

OFFICERS.

The following officers were chosen for the next year.

John Kerker, President.
John Truay, Secretary.
Jacob Jonny, Treasurer.

INCIDENTS &c.

The Waconia, Watertown and Young America Singing Societies interspersed the proceedings during the afternoon with songs and together with the music, helped to render the occasion pleasant.

The managers, Messrs Moy, Lutz, Kerker and others are entitled to thanks for their untiring energy in the man- agement of the affair. The occasion was a pleasant one and will long be remember- ed.

ASSAULT.—

A trial that elicited consid- erable attention was brought up be- fore Justice Sargent on Saturday. Christ Young complained that while on his re- turn from Benton, this County, he was waylaid by Nick Hein and two other persons unknown to him, and by them badly beaten and bruised. But upon trial, he was unable to swear positively that Mr. Hein committed the assault or was any way connected therewith. In fact Mr. Hein proved by several wit- nesses that he was at home at the time of the assault, after which the justice dis- charged Mr. Hein. The evidence com- pletely exonerating him from all com- plicity in the assault.

Mr. Young was badly bruised and beaten about the head and we should like to see the guilty parties punished as they richly deserve. But there was not ground for a shadow of suspicion against Mr. Hein.

PROMPT PAYMENT.—

John Boss of this town, received through Messrs. Weinmann & Lassen Agents, $55, from the Health and Provident Ins. Com- pany, St. Paul, as weekly compensation while suffering, being unable to work— from a sore on his elbow.

An "item" next week on the Post- office change.

Mower Challenge.

We had not space last week to call attention to the Mower challenge of Mr. P. Henk.

It will be seen that his challenge is of a sweeping nature, from which we are led to infer that, he has full con- fidence that the "Meadow King" is in reality justly entitled to "the" name.— The challenge is open for acceptance un- til the 30th inst. He also accepts the Reaper challenge.

NEW SHOP.—

Mr. Von Melkens of this place has erected a new cabinet shop near his residence. He is now ready for all calls for work in his line. Mr. M., is a superior workman.

DISTRICT SCHOOL.—

The fall term of the district school, Mr. Brown teacher, commenced on last Monday. The at- tendance of scholars is not very large at present.

BILLIARDS AT CARVER.—

Billiards at Carver.—Mine "hot" of the "Planters" has had his billiard table cut down to standard size and otherwise overhauled. It cannot now be excelled by any table in the State. Charlie knows how to cater to the taste.

DAKOTA CO. FAIR.—

We are in re- cept of the premium list of the Dakota County Agricultural Society, and from a glance at its contents judge it to be full and complete. The fair is to be held at Farmington on the 12th, 13th and 14th days of Oct. Albert Poor is President and Wm. Jones Secretary of the Society. The officers will accept our thanks for a complimentary ticket of admission thereto.

PERSONAL.—

Mr. Leue, the editor of the Volksblatt was in town during the week, and was also at Waconia during the Festival. Mr. Leue is a genial gentleman and represents the leading german paper in the State.

H. J. Peck of Watertown is in town on business connected with the Super- intendency of schools. He reports Wa- tertown as in a flourishing condition.

E. Holmes of Carver, was also in town during the week on a flying business trip.

Chas. Blumquist the genial and pop- ular landlord of the "Planters" at Car- ver was in town on Tuesday.

WESTERN MONTHLY.—

The August number of this interesting magazine is upon our table. It contains a fine steel portrait and biographical sketch of Samuel Merrill, Governor of Iowa. It has a solid lot of articles. The publish- ers announce that the September num- ber will be enlarged and improved. It can hardly be improved. Address, Reed, Brown & Co. Publishers, 18 Tribune Building Chicago, Ill.

Godey's Lady's Book for August, among its mass of good things contains a beautiful engraving—"Peeking Hor- ses." The publishers of this popular Monthly, have the faculty of knowing how to please, which they use admirably in the get-up of their Magazine.

—Arthur's publications, the "Home Magazine," the "Children's Hour" and "Once a Month" for August are at hand as choice full of good things as ever.

The little ailments, griefs and discomforts to which people are subject, is liable are among the hardest we have to bear. Loss of hair is one affliction to some people quite unbearable. Yet that loss elicits no consolation from our friend. Turn then to the greatest ben- efaction of this golden age, and apply with earnestness and vigor that un- rivaled preparation known as "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative," so agreeable in its application, so wonderful in its re- sults.—G. A. Du "Oh, Agn", Carver.

Loss in Stacking Hay.

A farmer of sound judgment and large experience in cutting and storing hay, estimates his own loss in stacking at twenty-five per cent. He cuts probably a hundred tons a year, a stacks a fifth part of it for want of barn room. He hardly properly made up his mind to build a new barn. We think his esti- mate is not wide from the mark. There is a large loss from moulding at the bot- tom of the stack, and old rails, boards, or straw will not wholly prevent it.— Then the whole external surface for three or four inches is weather beaten, and loses much of its sweetness; and it is not improbable that this loss of aroma extends through the whole stack.

The conviction is universal among inteligent men that barn-stored hay is worth more than that which is taken from the stack. Why, then, fol- low this wasteful practice? Look at the loss of this farmer who cuts one hundred tons of hay, worth $2,000.— According to his own estimate he pays $100 a year for the privilege of stacking one-fifth of his crop. This is but a small part of the loss where the hay is fed out at the stack. It costs at least a third more hay to keep cattle without shelter. These are strong arguments for more barn room.—Exchange.

Register of Deaths.

Mr. Enron.—Please announce the name of Leonard Streukens, of Benton, as a candidate for Register of Deaths, subject to the decision of the next Democratic County Convention.

Mr. Streukens is a thorough Democrat, who has done much for the interest of the party, and if nominated will receive the vote of a host of friends.

MANY DEMOCRATS.

Benton June 26, 1869.

MOWING TRIAL.

To the agents of all mowers.

We respectfully invite you to a mow- ing trial at any time before the 30th of July 1869. The trial shall be conducted by a committee of three disinterested farmers. The Judges to confine themselves to the particular points to- wit: the lightest draught, most durable, cheapest, best time, quality of work on rough and smooth ground, wet or dry. The machine that takes the prize sweeps the machines on the ground. Come one! come all!! We mean business and all we say.

The Judges to select the ground. If you wish to meet us give notice at any time before the 30th of July.

We accept the challenge of the reaper trial offered by H. R. Denny of Carver, Chaska July 21st 1869.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Notice has been made in the conditions of a certain indenture of Mortgage bearing date on the 27th day of April A. D. 1884, made by Matthias Eickman and Marie Eickman his wife of the village of Chaska, Carver Co. Minnesota, mortgagees, to John Nauminger of the village of Chaska, County of Carver, Minnesota, mortgagee, whereby the said mortgagees did mortgage and convey to said mortgagee, lot 6 block 25 in the village of Chaska as shown by the plat of said town now on record in the office of the Register of Deeds in said County of Carver, being and being in said County of Carver, together with the hereditaments and appurtenances, to secure the payment to said mortgagee of the sum of five hundred dollars according to the conditions of the promissory note of said Matthias Eickman and Marie Eickman made and given to said mortgagee bearing date with said mortgage, which said mortgage was duly filed for record in the office of the Register of Deeds of said County of Carver at 5 o'clock in the afternoon of the 28th day of May A. D. 1884, and was duly recorded in book "E" of mortgages on pages 108 and 109 which mortgage contains a power of sale, which has become operative by reason of default in the payment of the sum secured to be paid by said mortgage. By deed of assignment bearing date the 19th day of December A. D. 1884 duly executed by the said mortgagee, and duly assigned, sold and set over by the said mortgagee to John Dunn and delivered the said promissory note to him, which said assignment was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of said County of Carver, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of the 19th day of December A. D. 1884 in book "E" of mortgages on margin of page 108. No action or proceedings have been instituted at law or otherwise to recover the sum secured by said mortgage or any part thereof. The amount claimed to be due on said note and mortgage is the sum of three hundred fifty seven and 50-100 dollars.

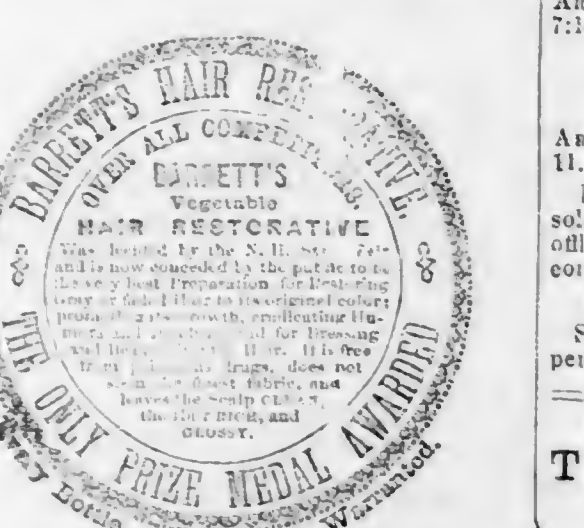

Now therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of said power of sale contained in said mortgage and recorded therewith and of the provisions of the Statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the said mortgaged premises to the highest bidder to be made by the Sheriff of said County of Carver at the front door of the Court House at Chaska in said County, on (1) o'clock in the afternoon of the 11th day of September A. D. 1884 and the proceeds of such sale will be applied in payment of the amount then due on said mortgage and expenses of foreclosure.

Dated July 28th 1884.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Oliver's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Syphilis, or Venereal Disease, and all its consequences, including Gonorrhea, Stricture, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.
Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr. Oliver's "Clarification Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publisher, CHAS. J. C. KILG & CO., 137 Bowery, N. Y., Post-Office Box 4,583.
